

Website Privacy Policy

The Poplar Creek Public Library District (PCPLD) is committed to protecting its patrons' privacy. Use of the library's website should not constitute an infringement on this privacy right.

The following statistical information may be transmitted and stored when you visit and use the PCPLD website (<http://www.poplarcreeklibrary.org>) and may include:

1. IP (internet protocol) address
2. ISP (internet service provider, such as AOL or Comcast)
3. The browser used to visit our site (such as Internet Explorer or Firefox)
4. The date and time you visited our site
5. Web pages visited on our site

The information above is collected and is used for statistical purposes; personal information is not collected.

While using the Poplar Creek Public Library District website (<http://www.poplarcreeklibrary.org>) we may ask you to provide certain personally identifiable information, such as your name and phone number, when filling out a form. This information is used to contact you regarding a service you may be requesting such as a program registration, and is never sold or shared with any third parties.

The Poplar Creek Public Library District website links to other sites not maintained by the Library. Such content is not controlled or maintained by the Library. The Poplar Creek Public Library is not responsible for the privacy practices of other websites and content.